OIL QUALITY: Rejuvenative Oils are created with a sincere and loving goal to epitomize without cutting corners the healthiest options for fats and oils. This oil is completely low-temperature processed (preferable to low-temperature pressed so you know it's completely unheated). Made in small batches with a, low-volume, hightech oil press (oil press photo at rawoils.com). Temperature never exceeds 90°-115°F so hempoil molecules stay healthy, raw and natural. This fresh, oil is naturally free of saturated or hydrogenated fats and trans fatty acids (TFAs). This oil was never refined, processed or added to in any way. Life energy in this oil is retained by refrigeration and 6-month freshness dating. This oil is shipped right after it's made from freshly hulled, raw organic low temperature processed hempseeds. The lowest smoke point is not less than 378 degrees F.
